PRESENTING THE 1953 PANORAMA

This year the name of the Defiance High School yearbook has been changed from "The Defiance" to "The Panorama." This change was made because it was generally felt that the yearbook needed a more significant title. In a contest students were asked to submit names. Later the subscribers to the annual voted on a name.

The title, "Panorama," suggesting an all-over view of the school year, submitted by Philip Myers, a Senior, received the highest number of votes.

It is hoped that this first issue of "The Panorama" will be the first in a long series of yearbooks depicting the life at Defiance High School both in and out of the classrooms.

DEDICATION

This yearbook is dedicated to all the alumni of Defiance High School who are serving, or have served, their country in the Korean Conflict.

These alumni are doing their best to preserve our way of life and deserve the greatest honor possible.

Last Will

We, the class of '53, presumably of sound minds and trained memories, have trod the halls of Defiance High School for four brief years, and realizing that all things come to an end — that another group will take our place, wrestle with the same problems, and make their bid for fame as we did — we, having acquired certain intangible and incorporeal attributes which we would like to pass on to those who come after us, do individually make the following bequests:

- I, Paul Baldwin, do bequeath my athletic ability to George Briggs.
- I, Janet Barto, will my choir robe to anyone who can fit into it.
- I, Shirley Bauman, will my laugh to Sandy Rosselet.
- I, Jim Bayliss, will all my ambition to Ned Nischwitz.
- I, Gene Bergeon, will my ability to "love'm and leave'm" to Bob Hultz.
- We, Barb Berthold and Leann Bohn, will our love for Ayersville to Barb Brown and Marsha Leaders.
- I, Ray Bistel, will my job at Krogers to Jim Wurst of the Super Chief.
- I, Charles Boes, will my job as "head popcorn popper" to Jerry Gecowets.
- I, Dale Bowers, will all my intelligence to Arlene Bodenbender.
- We, Carol Brown and Carolyn Brown, will our last names to Susan Black.
- I, Sharon Brown, will my slimness to Sally Dayson.
- I, Dort Buckmaster, will my eagerness to graduate to Dean Wellman.
- I, Shirley Culler, will my petiteness to Jackie Strine.
- I, Ladonna Daft, will my nickname, "Daffy," back to the duck.
- I, Ken Diemer, do will and bequeath my last name to anyone who will marry me.
- I, Marilyn Dirr, will my love for Defiance College to the G.A.A.
- I, Joe Doody, will my last name back to Howdy.
- I, Jim Draper, will my jeep back to the Army.
- I, Margaret Dreves, will my life to Willy Osborn.
- I, Joan Fauster, will my giggle to Joan (my namesake) Davis.
- We, Peg Fee and Nancy Hohenberger, will all our letters to Miami U. to the post office.

"It's Never Too Late," is it? The Juniors tried to prove that this year when they presented their rollicking comedy of the same name.

Poor Mr. Lee has spent the majority of his life making money, and consequently his family has been completely neglected.

After finally being set straight by Miss Stanley, his secretary, Mr. Lee ventures off to prove that "it's never too late" to become the father he should be.

Pop turns gardener, football player, and general fix-it man as complications get thicker and thicker. The whole Lee household gets into an uproar, but everything works out fine before the final curtain.

"OUT OF THIS WORLD"

Most of the activity of the 1952 Senior Play, "Out of This World," takes place around the Parkhurst School for Girls.

The play opens with a picnic, swimming party, and prom all on schedule. Of course, there have to be boys and they are from Cedar Heights College. Complications arise when Linda Russel (Mary Fessel) invites the speaker (Tony Parcher) and his son (Delano Straka), plus two other boys (Louis Simonis and Charles Ross) from Cedar Heights to stay at her uncle's without his knowledge.

Mr. Babb directed this sparkling comedy.

COMMERCE CLUB

If the business world is receiving a better secretary or typist today, it is because organizations like the Commerce Club are functioning in high schools throughout the country today.

This club gives the members an understanding of what is expected of them in the business world.

Miss Hankish has been leading the Commerce Club with the help of the following officers: Pat Memmer, President; Janice Killion, Vice-President; and Beverly Houck, Secretary-Treasurer.

PAT MEMMER

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is probably the most important student organization in the school.

Under the leadership of Gary Wagner, the president, the council acts as a governing body concerning procedures and activities within the school. Other officers were: Bill Stambaugh, Vice-President; Pat Sproul, Secretary; and Al Howard, Treasurer.

Mr. Henkle is the advisor.

GARY WAGNER

COLLEGE CLUB

Now that I am going to graduate, how can I further my education? What is college life like and what does it really mean? These are a few of the many problems of the Seniors which are answered and solved by the College Club.

Under the direction of Jim Draper, President; Peg Fee, Vice-President; Nancy Hohenberger, Secretary; and Polly Papenhagen, Treasurer; the club had a very successful year.

At monthly meetings guest speakers added interest and information to the club.

The Christmas party, the highlight of the year, was held during the holidays at which time alumni members attended and told of their college experiences.

Miss Kehnast is the advisor.

JIM DRAPER

THE BANNER

BANNER news is always good news. Every week, in spite of machine breakdowns, late news, mistakes, and foul weather, the BANNER comes out on time to brighten any rainy day.

The BANNER, published by the Journalism Class, was edited this year by Mary Hughes. Peg Fee was the business manager.

Other members of the staff included: Bill Ryan and Gary Wagner, sports editors; Janet Barto, Shirley Bauman, Lucille Hunt, Shirley Mekus, Kae Monti, Shirley Tracy, and Mary Jane Webb, reporters; Karen Kent and Gary Wagner, artists; Larry Hire, Rachelle Miller, and Jean Moser, machine operators.

Mr. Krutsch is the advisor.

Editor Mary Hughes explains assignments to Shirley Mekus, Shirley Tracy, and Kae Monti . . . Mr. Krutsch confers with the typists, Lucille Hunt and Shirley Bauman . . . Sports editors, Bill Ryan and Gary Wagner, work to meet the deadline . . . Gary Wagner and Karen Kent add the headlines . . . Machine operators, Jean Moser, Rachelle Miller, and Larry Hire, read the first copy "hot off the press" . . . Mary Jane Webb, Peg Fee, and Janet Barto distribute BANNERS to the lockers.

BOOSTERS

CAROL HOLLEY

The purpose of the Booster club is to promote fellowship among all students, support all school activities, to be of service to the school and community, to maintain and promote school spirit, and to develop and improve good character among members.

This year the Boosters were under the leadership of Carol Holley, President; Joan Fauster, Vice-President; Mary Jane Webb, Secretary; and Mary Hughes, Treasurer. The club had a membership of about 200 girls.

The Boosters sponsored the Thanksgiving Assembly and participated in the Christmas and May Day activities.

Miss Myers is the club advisor.

Carol Holley, Joan Fauster, Mary Jane Webb, Mary Hughes, and Miss Myers.

Members this year included: Janet Barto, Shirley Bauman, Leann Bohn, Sharon Brown, Marilyn Dirr, Margaret Dreves, Joan Fauster, Peg Fee, Ann Hohenberger, Nancy Hohenberger, Mary Hughes, Carol Holley, Janice Killion, Nancy Kress, Glenna Leithauser, Joyce Marckel, Martha McCague, Shirley Mekus, Kae Monti, Joan Nicely, Polly Papenhagen, Carole Patterson, Ann Peters, Janice Plassman, Paulann Porter, Sue Ryan, Sue Scheuerman, Sue Shockey, Eleanor Spangler, Pat Sproul, Joan Tracy, Shirley Tracy, Mary Jane Webb, Betty Wellman, Sue Widmer, Ladonna Daft, Lucille Hunt, Roseanne Simonis, Jeanne Schira, Karen Kent, Judy Abele, Carol Andrews, Mary Bohlmann, Carolyn Cooper, Joanne Crosser, Pat Daft, Sally Dayson, Carol Ernberger, Deane Goldenetz, Bev Houck, Pat Kreischer, Dolores McBroom, Pat Memmer, Barbara Naveau, Helen Oelke, Shirley Ott, Eileen Parker, Suzanne Patrick, Bonnie Richholt, Carolyn Schmunk, Sandy Rosselet, Jackie Strine, Marlene Senger, Sue Topfer, Marge Ross, Marsha Snyder, Bonnie Hewitt, Nina Coressel, Bev Hax, Alice Arend, Joann Andrist, Pat Bauer, Ann Behringer, Darlene Blake, Margie Boggs, Brenda Boyee, Barbara Burns, Donna Colgan, Ginny Compo, Carolyn Dirr, Barb Eck, Janie Erman, Marlene Fauth, Connie Galliers, Nancy Gump, Norma Hoop, Kay Johnson, Darlene Karnes, Charlene Kroeckel, Betty Leonard, Shirley Mattocks, Nathalie McConkey, Sharon McGinnis, Sharon McGrath, Betty Moore, Dorothy Moser, Bonnie Pease, Paula Peters, Sue Reiter, Sue Ross, Lee Ann Ryan, Shirley Seebauer, Corrine Seither, Barb Schmunk, Ruth Schwab, Jane Sheahan, Mary Schira, Suzy Strine, Sally Symonds, Barb Walz, Sue Warncke, Jean Weible, Joyce Wiseman, Nancy Zellers, Edna Rost, Pat Wagner, Sally Patterson, Joyce Bockelman, Suzanne Bowers, Barbara Brown, Ioma Clark, Lois Cooper, Jane Cordray, Katherine Diemer, Madonna Eck, Margie Farris, Carol Fricke, Virginia Froelich, Diane Giddings, Judy Gisler, Shirley Goldenetz, Ruth Gregory, Eleanor Heidepriem, Wilma Hunt, Carolyn Ingle, Jeanne Johnson, Marsha Leaders, Joyce Marihugh, Margo McGrath, Sue McGue, Sue McMillen, Jeannine Mehring, Mary Moser, Betty Richard, Gwen Schudel, Carol Seebauer, Barbara Sheik, Beverly Snyder, Patty Thieroff, Shirley Vogel, Mary Wenzinger, Roxanne Widmer, Rachel Williams, Judy Zimmerman, Mary Kay Demyan, Sharon Briggs, Georgia Kammer, and Janice Hohenberger.

D. E. C. A.

The purpose of the Distributive Education Club of America is to inform its members on good business procedures. During the year, each member is required to have a job where he can put into practice the business methods which he has learned.

This group, composed of the members of the Distributive Education class, is one of the most active groups at Defiance High School. The main activities of the year were the Regional Convention, which all the members attended; the State Convention, which the president and secretary attended; and the annual D.E.C.A. banquet held in the spring.

Officers for the year were: Max Wallar, President; Jack Krutsch, Vice-President; Betty Wellman, Secretary; Ann Hohenberger, Treasurer; and Kae Monti, Reporter.

Members included: Charles Boes, Joe Doody, Rex Hall, Bill Heilman, Ann Hohenberger, Jack Krutsch, Paul Layman, Jackie Lindeman, Joyce Marckel, Kae Monti, Dennis Reed, Sue Ryan, Bill Shoup, Bill Slough, Ralph Slocum, Janet Wagner, Max Wallar, Mary Ward, Jerry Warnimont, Betty Wellman, and Dick Wiehe.

Mr. Heusi is the club advisor.

HI-Y

The Senior Hi-Y is interested in maintaining high social standings and improving social conditions.

With clean living, clean speech, clean athletics, and clean scholarship as their platform, this group performs many duties and projects for the betterment of social standards within the community. The Senior Hi-Y was led by Jan Patten, President; Jim Green, Vice-President; Bob Enos, Secretary; Jim Burke, Treasurer; Paul Fischer, Chaplain; and George Briggs, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Junior Hi-Y, having completed its second year as an active body, has proved to be a huge success.

With Christian thought, Christian action, and Christian leadership as their platform, the Junior Hi-Y, like the Senior group, also is working to create higher social standards within the community.

This year's officers were: John Mitchell, President; Jim Weaver, Vice-President; John Winners, Secretary; Bill Vandemark, Treasurer; and Bruce Gossman, Chaplain.

Mr. Fallon is the advisor of both groups.

The District Hi-Y Convention is held here at D.H.S.

SPANISH CLUB

A new organization at the high school this year was the Spanish Club. Composed of students in the Spanish I and Spanish II classes, the club enjoyed many interesting meetings under the leadership of Shirley Tracy, President; Polly Papenhagen, Vice-President; Charlotte Gardiner, Secretary; and Fred Goshia, Treasurer.

Members included: Barbara Berthold, Charlotte Gardiner, Fred Goshia, Polly Papenhagen, Ann Peters, Janet Scheuerman, Paul Sponsler, Shirley Tracy, Erma Walmer, Carol Andrews, John Clemens, Carol Gottwald, Elaine Hahr, Steve Hoffman, Loran Hussey, Jim Kohout, and Hazel Ort.

Miss Collins is the advisor.

SHIRLEY TRACY

LATIN CLUB

To promote the study of Latin and show its influence on modern life are the main objectives of the Classica Societas or Latin Club.

The club is composed of Latin II students who have a B average in Latin. In February, during the traditional initiation ceremony, all Latin I students who receive an A average the first semester and maintain a B average are permitted to join the club.

This group of approximately sixty members is especially active during National Latin Week. Through announcements and posters they stress the ever-present value of Latin in everyday living.

The officers included: Carol Gottwald, Praeses; Therese Simonis, Praesidis vicarius; Barbara Myers, Scriba; and William Beatty, Aerario praefectus.

Miss Schlegel is the club advisor.

CAROL GOTTWALD

The Latin Club presents its annual initiation of new members at an assembly for the student body.

STUDENT ASSISTANTS

Work, work, work all day long. The student assistants are the workers who help with the many duties around the school.

Mr. Babb is the advisor of the library assistants.

Nancy Hohenberger and Mary Bohlmann record grades . . . Martha McCague and Charlene Schultz assist the librarian . . . Jane Cordray acts as hall monitor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a student can achieve. Selection is made on the basis of scholarship, service, character, and leadership.

To be eligible, candidates must stand in the upper third of their class scholastically. Membership is limited to 15 percent of the Senior Class and 5 percent of the Junior Class.

Selected last year as Juniors were Janet Barto, Mary Hughes, Larry Hire, Karen Kent, Rachelle Miller, Polly Papenhagen, and Ann Peters.

Seniors elected to membership this year were Margaret Dreves, Peg Fee, Nancy Hohenberger, Carol Holley, Dave Pelok, Shirley Mekus, Lucille Meyer, Philip Myers, Paulann Porter, Bill Ryan, Jeanne Schira, and Paul Sponsler.

Juniors selected this year included Arlene Bodenbender, Ned Willey, George Brindle, Pat Kreischer, Marlene Senger, Jackie Strine, Joan Hartzell, and Therese Simonis.

Mr. Blue is the club advisor.

SKYLARK CLUB

Dancing, ping-pong, cards, shuffle-board, and other games provide entertainment for the members of the Skylark Club.

The club rooms are open Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday nights to all members and their parents as well as other students.

Open house is held twice a year at which time all adults and students in the Defiance vicinity are welcome.

The club is operated by student executives elected by the members under the supervision of an adult committee and the club hostess, Mrs. Paul Kern.

The executive board confers with Mrs. Paul Kern, club hostess . . . Cards provide amusement for many members . . . Members register before entering.

Youth executive members for the year include: Jim Draper and Shirley Ott, Co-presidents; Marlene Senger, Secretary; Shirley Mekus, Treasurer; Joan Fauster, Nancy Hohenberger, Janice Killion, Pat Sproul, Bill Stambaugh, Gary Wagner, Carol Ernsberger, Pat Memmer, Marge Ross, Carolyn Schmunk, Dick Seibert, Chuck Wood, Fred Boyd, Bob Cameron, Darlene Karnes, and Sharon McGinnis.

Dancing is one of the major attractions . . . Executives spin the platters . . . Members team up for ping-pong.

ASSEMBLIES

Assembly programs this year provided a variety of entertainment and instruction for the pupils of D.H.S.

The "Southland Singers," a male Negro quartette, were the first outside visitors.

Joseph Hardin was excellent on the violin and Jim Lynch showed some tricks in archery before "The Allens" arrived to put on a very interesting assembly, showing how different sound effects are made on radio, television, and in the movies.

Between the Thanksgiving Assembly, which was sponsored by the Boosters and the Choir, and the Christmas Assembly presented by the Choir, several movie shorts were enjoyed. These included "Teen-A-Cide" and "The Quarterback."

The Chief of Police, Mr. Nestleroad, talked to the students in a Safety Assembly.

One of the most enjoyable assemblies was a tenor soloist, Mr. Pruth McFarlin, who sang a varied program.

When February arrived, the Juniors presented the prevues of their class play, "It's Never Too Late."

Many D.H.S. students took part in the World Affairs Assembly, Latin Club Initiation Assembly, and the Hi-Y Brotherhood Assembly.

A very interesting and educational discussion on Latin America was given by Mr. Don Bolt, a famed lecturer from Brazil, Indiana.

This year's band-exchange-concert was with Wauseon and their band was enjoyed by all.

The Dramatics Class presented a one-act play, "One Happy Family."

Following the Hi-Y Easter Assembly, a Safety Assembly and some other movie shorts including "How to Catch a Cold," "Junior Prom," and "Dinner Party" were presented to the student body.

In April the Defiance College Choir presented an excellent program.

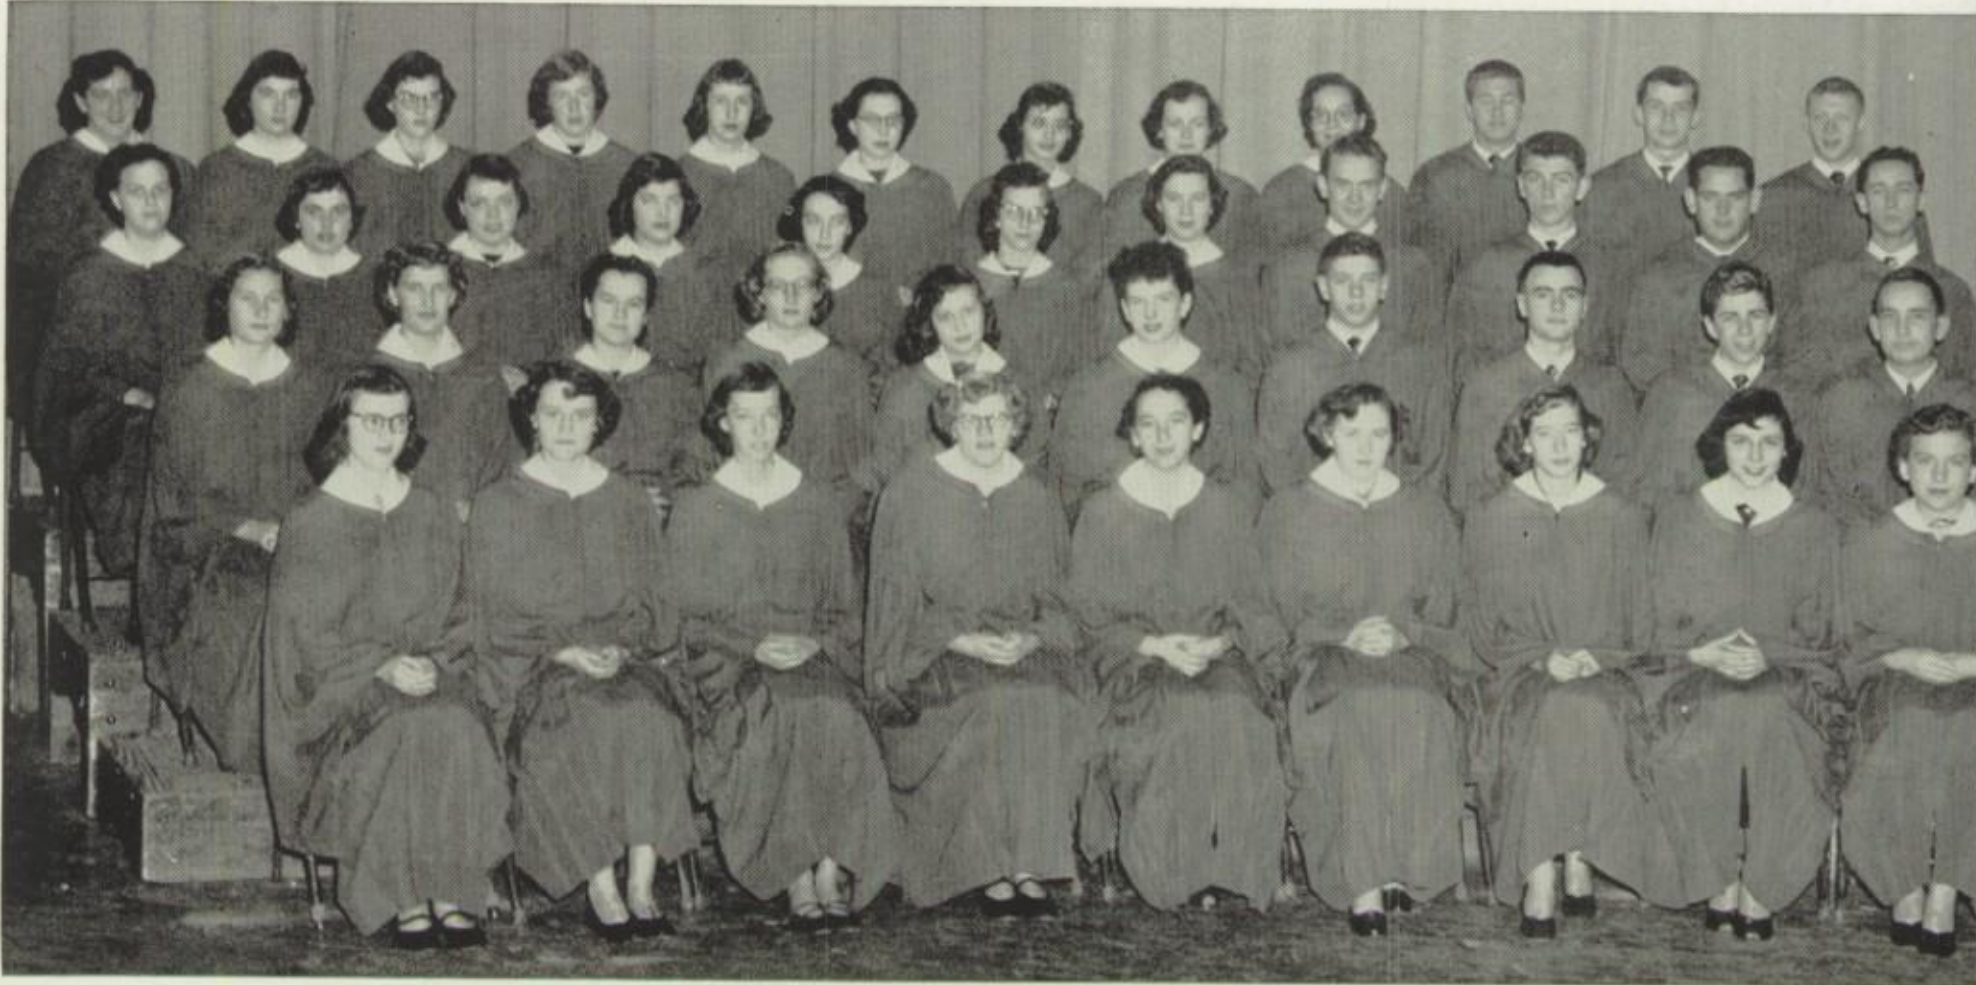

The Seniors then took the spotlight in the last three assemblies when the prevue of their class play, "Every Family Has One" was followed by the Recognition Day Assembly and last but not least the annual Senior Assembly.

"SAY IT WITH MUSIC"

MUSIC

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

It is the aim of every musically inclined Junior and Senior to become a member of the Defiance High School A Cappella Choir. Members gain entrance to the choir through tryouts given by Mr. Brooke, the choir director.

The choir made several appearances at school assemblies including the Armistice, Thanksgiving, and Christmas Day programs this year.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1952 pigskin season was a big one for D.H.S. as the Bulldogs rolled to another league championship with a seven won and one lost record. Their lone defeat came at the hands of unbeaten Van Wert, ninth ranking team in the state of Ohio.

Gene Baldwin and Bob Sabo carried the burden of the backfield, while the entire Bulldog forward wall, led by Dave Pelok and captain-elect Max Wallar, played stellar football the whole season.

At the conclusion of the season, Dave Pelok was voted to an honorable-mention berth on the Ohio All-State team by INS. All-League representatives from D.H.S. were: 1st team: Max Wallar, Pete Marihugh, Harvey Boyce, Joe Doody, and Gene Baldwin; 2nd team: Bob Sabo, Jerry Warnimont, and Paul Baldwin. Honorable Mentions went to Bill McGue and Wayne Ort.

At the annual football banquet, Loran Hussey was selected as the most improved player of the 1953 season.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

The purpose of Junior High football is to impress on future gridiron players the fundamentals of football.

The 1952 squad ended their season with a three and three record. They started off with a resounding 28-0 win over Montpelier. Van Wert turned the tables on the Pups and defeated them 26-7. Napoleon followed suit with a 27-7 victory. The Pups balked after two straight losses and defeated Bryan 13-6 and Wauseon 21-7. Their season ended with a loss to Liberty Center 12-6.

Larry Morris carried the burden of the backfield, while Bill Vandemark, Jerry Myers, and Ken Andrist spearheaded the forward wall.

Mr. Wahl, a native of Defiance, coached the team after mentoring at Hudson, Michigan, the previous season.

Row Two— Coach Gecowets, Jim Lehman, John Snyder, Bill McGue, Bill Weisgerber, Tom Schmunk, Fred Knoop.

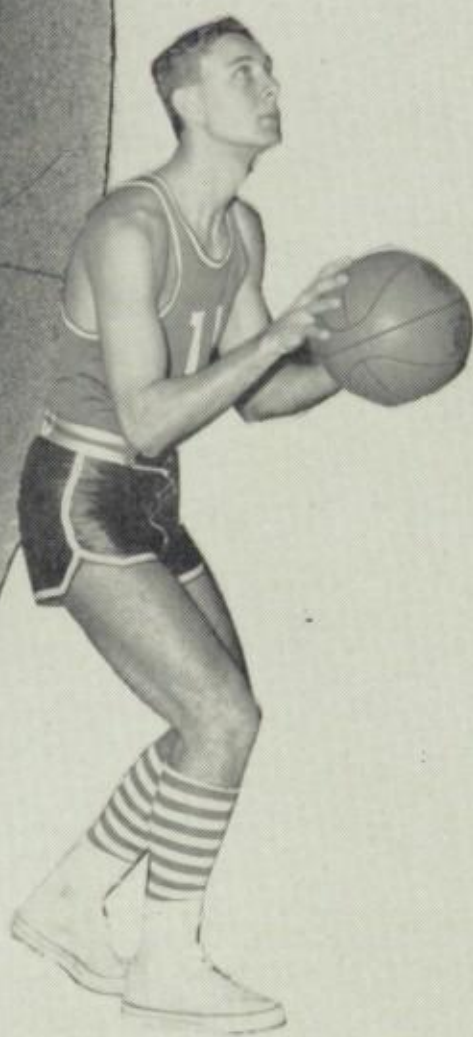

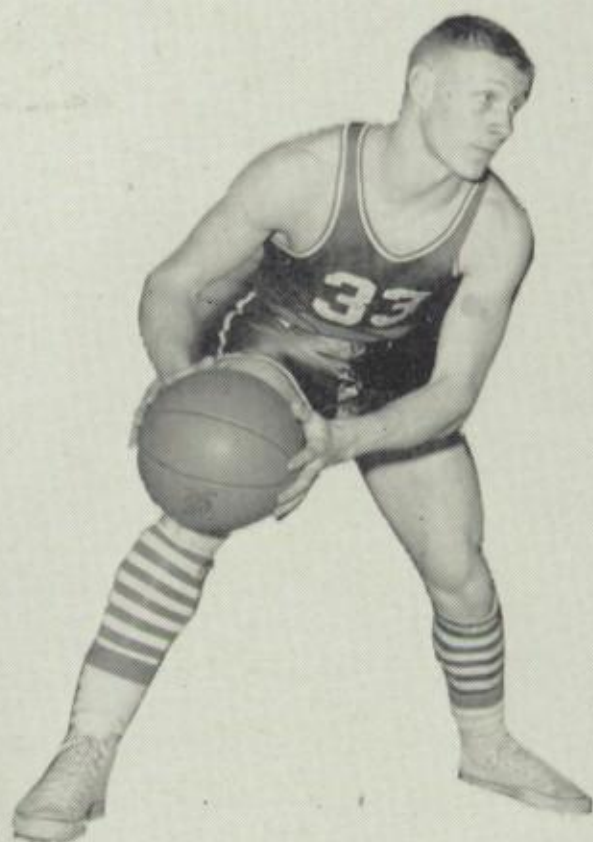

Basketball around D.H.S. this year was not the same as it has been for quite some time. The Bulldogs were hampered by the fact that they had no home court, and had to practice on the Armory hardwood. Nevertheless, the Bulldogs tredded through the season to compile a record of ten wins and eight losses, while being dropped from tourney play in their first contest by League Champ Napoleon.

Because of graduation the Bulldogs will lose the services of five regular boys who have, for the most part, played an important role in varsity basketball at D.H.S. for the past three years. These players are Bob Myers, Bill Stambaugh, Gary Wagner, Bill McGue, and Paul Baldwin. A fine crop of underclassmen, though, were present to prove their ability on the hardwoods.

Head Coach Max Gecowets and his assistant, Merle McDonald, were the mentors of the 1953 hoopster squad.

RESERVE SQUAD —

Although the Junior High team, coached by Mr. Riggle, ended their season with a record of eight losses and four wins, all eight games were lost by a total of thirty-two points, or an average of four points per contest.

It is this training that helps to prepare the boys for reserve and varsity basketball.

Coach Hampshire and his Freshman basketball squad tied for the top rung of the League ladder this season, while also being runners-up in the N.W.O.L. Frosh basketball tournament behind Montpelier. Their entire season's record, including tournament play, added up to nine wins and six losses.

Ronnie Powell led the Freshman quintet in scoring by dumping in 135 points during the regular season for an average of 11.2 markers per game. Other Frosh with commendable scoring records were Tom Hale, Phil Hoeffel, Larry Pelok, and Ronnie Funk.

TRACK

The 1952 Track and Field squad, by hard work and strong competitive spirit, turned in a most profitable season, a season in which two school records were broken. The team was coached by Mr. Cowan and assisted by Mr. Zimmerman.

The first of these new records is held by Bill Stambaugh, who high jumped 5 feet 9 inches against Liberty Center. Stambaugh was also valuable in the low hurdles. The second of these records is held by that speed demon in the dashes, Gary Wagner. Wagner ran the 440 yard dash in 51.4 seconds to set a new school record. In the League Meet, Wagner took four first places out of four events, the most that anyone can take. To top off the feats of speed, Gary went to Columbus to participate in the State Track Meet and placed fourth in the 440 dash.

Other outstanding performers were: Bob Osborn in the high hurdles and high jump; Gene Baldwin, Pete Marihugh, Gaylen Ordway, and Bill Stambaugh in the relays; Bill Heilman in the mile run; and Wagner in the broad jump, 100 and 220 yard dashes.

BASEBALL

Baseball popularity continued to grow rapidly in Defiance High as the Bulldog diamondmen compiled a five and four record for the 1952 season.

Batter up . . .

A fine group of underclassmen kept the Bulldogs fired up as there was not a Senior on the squad.

Don Hampshire, now in his fourth year as varsity baseball coach, has produced exceptional teams as well as individual players of whom Defiance fans can rightly be proud.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

The purpose of the G.A.A. is to foster good sportsmanship, leadership, fun, and good clean living.

Marlene Senger, the Junior Council Member for the year, was introduced at the informal initiation held at Kingsbury Park in early September. Members were presented their awards at the annual banquet in May.

G.A.A. Council Members this year included: Sharon Brown, President; Polly Papenhagen, Vice-President; Janice Killion, Secretary; Joan Fauster, Treasurer; Pat Sproul, field hockey; Shirley Mekus, volleyball; Glenna Leithauser and Mary Hughes, bowling; Nancy Hohenberger and Mary Sauber, basketball; Jeanne Schira and Ann Hohenberger, softball; and Marlene Senger, Junior Council Member.

Miss Small is the advisor.
